

Curriculum Vitae

Shawanna D. Jackson, MSN, RN – PHNA-BC

816-935-7602

sdjackso@graceland.edu

EDUCATION

- | | |
|--|------------------|
| University of Missouri | Columbia, MO |
| ■ Master in Nursing, 2010 | |
| Emphasis in Public Health | |
|
 | |
| University of North Carolina | Chapel Hill, NC |
| ■ Field Epidemiology Certificate, 2007 | |
|
 | |
| Graceland University | Independence, MO |
| ■ Bachelor of Science in Nursing, 1998 | |
| ■ Magna cum laude | |

AWARDS

- Nurse of the Year, Public Health/ Ambulatory Care, March of Dimes, 2015
- Partnership Award, Mid-America Immunization Coalition, Recognition of partnership with local hospital and public health through Tdap vaccination program, 2011.
- Model Practice, National Association of City and County Health Officials, “Implementation of a Tdap Vaccination Program for Postpartum Mothers,” 2010
- Poster Presentation, National Association of City and County Health Officials Annual Conference, “Implementation of a Tdap Vaccination Program for Postpartum Mothers,” 2010
- Poster Presentation, National Immunization Conference, “Implementation of a Tdap Vaccination Program for Postpartum Mothers,” 2009
- Model Practice, National Association of City and County Health Officials, “Emergency Services Committee,” 2008
- Model Practice, National Association of City and County Health Officials, “Child Care Immunization Ordinance”, 2006
- Poster Presentation, National Association of City and County Health Officials Annual Conference, “Child Care Immunization Ordinance”, 2006

Public Health Manager, Communicable Disease and Immunization

- Oversees and manages all activities related to communicable disease prevention and immunization, including outbreak investigation, clinics, and child care and school health programs.
- Manages budgets and ensures that all budget objectives and grant deliverables are met.
- Coordinates at the local, state and federal levels.
- Provides direct supervision of nursing and health education staff.
- Serves a preceptor to all nursing and public health students.

2011-2013

Independence Health Department

Independence, MO

Health Promotion Division Manager

- Oversees and manages all activities within the Division, including communicable disease, emergency planning, maternal and child health, and the Building a Healthier Independence initiative focusing on healthy eating, physical activity and decreased use of tobacco
- Manages budgets of general revenue and multiple grants.
- Ensures that all budget objectives and grant deliverables are met for the City's general revenue and grants, including Public Health Preparedness, Cities Readiness Initiative, Community Transformation Grant, Social Innovation for Missouri, Maternal Child Health, Aid to Local Public Health, and Child Care Health Consultation
- Coordinates at the local, state and federal levels
- Provides direct supervision of 21 staff; completes performance appraisals
- Responsible for staff training and development; serves a preceptor to all nursing and public health students.

2004-2011

Independence Health Department

Independence, MO

Communicable Disease and Epidemiology Supervisor

- Provides leadership and supervision of all activities of the Communicable Disease and Epidemiology Section and Emergency Preparedness Section of the Health Department
- Supervises Communicable Disease Nurse, Epidemiology Specialist, Emergency Preparedness Planner
- Serves as preceptor to all nursing students and guest speaker at nursing schools
- Develops and reviews departmental policies and procedures, as well as health policies that impact the community
- Assesses and monitors health needs of the community; complete community health assessment and annual reports
- Coordinates emergency response and communicable disease prevention activities and education for the community, school districts, child care facilities, physicians, hospitals, first responders, businesses and city employees
- Evaluates health programs
- Assists with budget and multiple grants of the division
- Participates in hiring process and performance appraisals
- Performs duties of Health Promotion Manager in her absence

2001-2004

Independence Health Department

Independence, MO

Nurse Epidemiologist

- Responsible for all communicable disease surveillance, reporting, and case management for the city of Independence.
- Supervises additional nursing staff that assist with communicable disease investigations, case management, and education.
- Performs epidemiological investigations in a leadership role related to suspected or confirmed communicable disease outbreaks, including food borne, enteric, rash illness, vaccine preventable, and rabid animal investigations.
- Coordinates and provides education to city employees, patients, nursing staff, school nurses and the community related to communicable disease prevention and control, bioterrorism, and immunization.
- Performs, and supervises nursing staff who perform, immunization audits of Independence child care facilities and home daycares to ensure the health and safety for the children of Independence. Also, provide ongoing immunization education.
- Ensures immunization compliance for child care facilities in Independence.
- Coordinates and participates in influenza clinics.
- Performs, manages, and coordinates human case surveillance and all educational activities for the West Nile Virus contract.
- Compiles and analyzes statistical information for all programs of the Health Promotion Division.

CLINICAL EXPERIENCE

2001-2001

Children's Choice Learning Center

Kansas City, MO

Assistant Director of Nursing

- Provided direct care for various ages of mildly ill children.
- Supervised Licensed Practical Nurses, Nursing Assistants, and teachers.
- Performed assessment, medication administration, documentation related to changes in health status, and maintained current immunization records.
- Provided first aid, CPR, and communicable disease education to the staff.

1999-2002

Liberty Hospital

Liberty, MO

Staff Nurse

- Provided direct patient care for Neurological, Medical, Surgical, Pediatric, and Orthopedic patients.
- Performed various nursing procedures, including medication administration, and patient and family education.
- Maintained communication with physicians and nursing staff.

PUBLICATIONS AND PAPERS

- Koelmay, K., Jackson, S. and Duchin, J. S. (2010). Vaccination to protect the newborn. NACCHO Exchange, 9.
- Jackson, S. (2008). Emergency services committee. NACCHO Exchange, 7, 8-9.
- Jackson, S. (2008). Tdap education and administration during the postpartum period. The Missouri Nurse, 1, 16-17.
- Jackson, S. (2006). Child care immunization ordinance. NACCHO Exchange, 5, 13.

CERTIFICATIONS

- Registered Nurse Licensure, Missouri and Kansas
- Advanced Public Health Nurse, Board Certification, American Nurses Credentialing Center
- Certification in Online Teaching and Learning, University of Missouri, Kansas City
- Certification in Online Teaching Foundations, University of Missouri, Columbia
- Local Government Supervision Certificate Program, Government Training Institute, Mid-America Regional Council

MEMBERSHIPS

American Nurses Association

Association of Public Health Nurses

National Association of City and County Health Officials

Missouri Nurses Association

Graceland University Community Advisory Committee

Missouri Public Health Association

Association of Professionals in Infection Control and Epidemiology

Emergency Services Committee

Missouri Council for Public Health Nursing (past chair)