

Graceland
UNIVERSITY | 1895

Music DEPARTMENT

2017-18 WORKSHOP DAYS

Graceland University offers a wide variety of programs to help you and your students succeed in your musical endeavors!

Each of our events is offered free of charge, and feature some of the most accomplished performers and educators from across the U.S. and abroad. All events are held in our state-of-the-art facilities: Shaw Auditorium and Carol Hall. We hope you will consider joining us for one of our workshops!

NOVEMBER

13

MONDAY

Brass and Woodwind Day

Come take part in clinics, masterclasses and performances featuring Graceland faculty and professional guest artists on all brass and woodwind instruments. Sessions will cover a wide range of topics, including technical development and musicality on each instrument.

JANUARY

22

MONDAY

Vocal Day

Join the top singers from regional schools for Vocal Music Day! Students will work with music faculty and professional guest artists through recitals, masterclasses and one-on-one or group voice lessons throughout the day. Singers will also have the opportunity to attend sessions to learn about various vocal topics, from healthy vocal production to advanced vocal technique.

MARCH

27

TUESDAY

Percussion Day

Get your percussion ensemble ready for solo and ensemble festival by joining us for Percussion Day. Each participating group will receive a clinic on their percussion ensemble music from our renowned guest artists, and can attend clinics and masterclasses throughout the day, featuring Graceland faculty and some of the best percussion educators in the country!

Graceland
UNIVERSITY | 1895

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Dr. Erin Bodnar

MUSIC DEPARTMENT COORDINATOR | bodnar1@graceland.edu | 641.784.5273