

WALLACE B. SMITH Leadership, Arts and Sports Grant Application

The Wallace B. Smith Scholarships honor a former president of the Community of Christ by identifying incoming Graceland freshmen who show outstanding leadership potential. Leaders are those who strive to achieve intellectual, physical, social and spiritual wholeness in themselves and in others while being community builders who accept and value diversity. While Graceland campus leaders often take leadership roles in their social houses, in student government, in athletics, clubs or the fine arts, they can also display respect and integrity in friendships and informal activity. The nine scholarships, ranging from $1,000 to $3,000, renewable for up to four years, are awarded on a competitive basis each year at Spectacular.

ELIGIBILITY

- Entering senior year of high school.
- Participating in Spectacular.
- Applying for admission to Graceland University.

Students eligible for tuition benefit may apply. Awards may be subject to certain restrictions.

EVALUATION

Applicants will be evaluated by these criteria:

- Leadership
- Personality, enthusiasm, sportsmanship
